The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen, whose well known character for integrity, honor, and public enterprise are so well known as to guarantee success, and a fair and impartial distribution of the gifts:—

Major George W Grice, President Bank of Portsmouth,
Col William Lamb, President First National Bank, Norfolk,
Gen V D Groner, General Agent Boston Steamship Company,
Captain Nathaniel Burruss, Son & Co., Washington Reed, Esq., of Peters & Reed Merchants,
E G Gill, Esq., Superintendent Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad.

William H White, Esq., Attorney at Law, Norfolk.

The distribution will be by blindfolded persons or children, from two wheels, one of which will contain gifts on printed slips sealed in envelopes of the same size, the other will contain tags, with numbers on them corresponding with all the tickets sold; after the contents of both wheels are thoroughly mixed by revolving, the person at the first wheel will take a number therefrom, and then the person at the second wheel will take a gift therefrom, and the gift thus taken will belong to the number taken immediately before it,—this process will continue—the numbers and gifts being publicly announced—until the whole four hundred and and one gifts are distributed. Thus the public will readily see there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.

Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

LOCAL BRIEFS.—

The Board of county commissioners meet on the 3d prox.

Most of the pumps on Fayetteville street were frozen yesterday.

Eighty-five Sheriffs have settled for their State taxes with the Public Treasurer.

Yesterday morning no cases came up in the Police Court before his Honor Mayor Whitaker.

See the notice concerning the coupons of the city of Raleigh, issued under the act of 1869.

A little white boy had his right eye severely hurt yesterday by being struck in it by a fire cracker.

An Eastern editor sat down in a reserved seat already occupied by a hornet. He stands up when scissoring his editorials now.

Raleigh Lodge I. O. O. F., will meet to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, at Odd Fellows' Hall, for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The Board of City Commissioners have been trying to have a meeting for the last week, but it seems that they can't get a quorum together.

A sleigh laden with a number of fair ones capsized on Hargett street yesterday morning. No damage resulted save the wetting of damask cheeks.

Thomas Ragland, Senior proprietor of the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, died last week. Mr. R. was born in this city Oct. 4th, 1791, and removed to Georgia early in life.

Dr. W. H. Howerton, of Salisbury, the Secretary of State elect is in the city, preparatory to entering upon the duties of the office to which he has been elected on the first of next month.

Call this cold? Pshaw! Let anybody who thinks so, warm himself up by reading the weather reports from "out West." Thermometer 42 degrees below zero out Milwaukee way and still on the sink.

W. T. Manning, Esq., of the Roanoke News, gladdened our office yesterday by his bright and genial face. We are always glad to see Bro. Manning, and hope his visits will not be few and far between.

In our notice of the affair of Geo. Curtis, colored, who recently "put out the chunk" of Daniel Kuffin, colored, at a corn shucking at Mr. Weathers', we omitted to state that the offender has been committed to jail to answer the charge of murder.

Messrs. Miller & Nelson, under the Metropolitan Hall, have just received a large supply of Bologna Sausage, Schwerdenmauger, Blood Worst. Liver Worst, Limberger and Schewitzer Cheese. They also keep on hand wild Ducks, Geese, Turkeys and boiled hams, and North River and Lynhaven Bay Oysters in the shell. All of which Freeman serves up in good style at their Lunch Counter.

Willis McNeil, col., the recently arrested clothes thief, has confessed to his evil deeds. He acknowledged to having perpetrated robberies upon W. H. Crow, Esq., Dr. Thomas Hogg, Mr. Powers and a number of other gentlemen, purloining overcoats, hats, shoes, chairs, &c. The Chief of Police, Mr. King, deserves great credit for the skillful manner in which he and his assistants have worked up the case.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A day or two ago a little son of Mr Strother, who lives about five miles Southeast of this city, aged some two and a half years, broke its thigh by slipping down on the ice in the front porch. Dr. James McKee was called to attend the little sufferer.

ANNOYING ERROR.—In our article concerning the Baptist School, the printers made us call Mrs. Victoria L. Jones Mrs. N. L. Jones. We regret the error, although the description evidently fitted no one so well as the accomplished lady for whom it was intended.

SUFFERING AMONG THE POOR.—Great indeed is the suffering among the poor of our city on account of the detention of the wood purchased by the Young Mens' Christian Association for distribution among them. We learn from a gentlemen who has taken some pains to inform himself as to the condition of this unfortunate class of our fellow beings, that very many of the poor are entirely without wood, and by his request this notice, calling attention to the matter, is published. One case he specially made mention of: a woman and six children, living in the suburbs of the city on the road leading to the Insane Asylum, are in most destitute circumstances. Two of the children are ill and the family are without wood or food. He cited various other cases of destitution known to him, and said that there were doubtless many others which never, perhaps, would be known until the sufferers were beyond the reach of aid, unless more will engage in the task of hunting them up and extend that assistance which their wants demand.

We have heard complaints that too few even of the members of Young Mens' Christian Association engage actively in this good work and that all the labor devolves upon a few. This evil, we hope, will be at once remedied, for by its continuation the charity of the Association may be prevented from alleviating those whose distress appeals so strongly to all the impulses of pity and benevolence which soften the human heart towards the woes endured by its kind. We appeal to our citizens to unite with and aid the Association in every way which they can. It will do those good who have enough of the goods of this world to live easily to visit the abodes of poverty. Go, see their indescribable sufferings that you may, with your own eyes, contrast their condition with your own, and feel for once in your life really grateful to your Creator for the blessings He has vouchsafed you, and then follow His injunction to relieve their words.

A MERITED AND GRACEFUL TRIBUTE.—Col. W. E. Saunders in one of his recent interesting editorial letters to his paper (Wilmington Journal) pays a graceful and merited tribute to the ability and zeal which Messrs. McGehee, Moore and Bennett display in discharging their duty as members of the House of Representatives. He says:

"Time and experience have shown, too, that many of the new members are good men and true and able. Colonel Bennett, of Anson, and Mr. McGehee, of Person, in the House of Representatives, are both new members, but they have taken a very high stand, which their ability and attainments will doubtless enable them to maintain. Mr. Moore, of Martin, barring his railroad notions, is also a man to be admired. As Mr. McGehee is the senior of these gentlemen, it may not be invidious to refer to him as one of the best scholars and most thoroughly informed gentlemen in the State of North Carolina. He has few equals either in ability or attainments. In the Legislature, Col. Bennett commands a willing and attentive audience whenever he addresses the House. He has made his mark unmistakably and has, at a single bound, as it were, become an acknowleged leader. That Mr. Moore was able to carry through so objectionable a project as the New York and Norfolk and Charleston Railroad, by an overwhelming majority, is a striking proof of his power. In the Senate, Messrs. Norwood, of Orange, and Cunningham, are probably the most prominent new members."

HON. JOHN W. NORWOOD.—From the columns of the Wilmington Journal we take the following handsome compliment to the gentleman whose name heads this article, and we also heartily endorse the handsome allusion to Hon. Hugh Waddell contained therein:

We had the pleasure of seeing this venerable gentleman and distinguished lawyer in our city on yesterday.

Mr. Norwood now represents the county of Orange in the Senate of North Carolina, and performs the labors incident to his position with a zeal and ardor and fidelity that many younger men might well emulate.

We are glad that it has pleased him to spend the Christmas holidays with us, and can assure him that nowhere would he find a more cordial welcome than in the city of Wilmington.

A gentleman of the old school and a lawyer well known to fame in those better days, when the bar of the State would have done honor to any age and to any country, Mr. Norwood brings up to us his life-long friend and associate, Hon. Hugh Waddell, of late years a resident of our city. North Carolina may well be proud of such gentlemen as Hugh Waddell and John W. Norwood.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—Friday last was, according to the Masonic calendar, St. John's Day, and during the evening the two Lodges of this city, Hiram and W. G. Hill, elected and installed their officers for the ensuing Masonic year. The following is the list for Hiram Lodge:

A. S. Lee, W. M; F. H. Busbee, S. W.; A. H. Winston, J. W.; L. E. Hearty, Treasurer; E. B. Thomas, Secretary; J. C. R. Little, S. D; T. W. Blake, J. D; Jno. W. Cole and C. D. Christophers, Stewards; Jno. D. Primrose, Marshal; D. P. Meacham, Chaplain; H. C. Prempert, Tyler.

For W. G. Hill Lodge, the following is the list:

R. H Bradley, W. M.; J. R. Williams, S. W.; N. B. Broughton, J. W.; W. C. Stronach, Treasurer; W. P. Wetherrell, Secretary; W. J. Wier, S. D.; C. B. Edwards, J. D.; Thomas W. Howell and W. R. Dicks, Stewards; Jno. C. Gorman, Marshal; H. C. Prempert, Tyler.

UNMAILABLE LETTERS.—On yesterday the following letters were held in the Post Office in this city, for the following persons:

Mrs. Rosa B. Watmans, Greenville; Mrs. D. J. Clay, Wilson, Tennessee; Wm. Numsen & Co., Baltimore, Md.

THE ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED.—Mr. Pomeroy, of the firm of Bartlett & Pomeroy, manufacturers of the Adjustable Spring Bed, of Baltimore, is stopping at the Yarboro House, where he has on exhibition some specimens of finest thing of the the kind we ever saw in the line of spring beds. It is pliant, adjustable and durable, and has only to be seen to be admired. We have had experience with many sorts of beds—husk beds, wool beds, buffalo robe beds, beds made of paper in a printing office, the bare bunk of a fire engine house, the spring beds that are eternally giving way, spring beds with crosswire slats, hair beds, no beds at all, and all others except beds of down and beds of rose leaves—but we have no hesitation in declaring this the best of all.

Mr. Pomeroy intends establishing in this city a manufactory of his adjustable bed, so we learn, and we predict that "tired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," will come over the senses of many of our citizens in consequence of this advent into our midst.

OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to-day, (Sunday.) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemanly ushers will be present to conduc visitors to pews which are always free.

Edenton Street Methodist Church, Edenton street, Rev. A. W. Mangum, officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½ o'clock P. M.

Baptist Church, corner Salisbury and Edenton streets, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 8 o'clock P. M.

Presbyterian Church, corner Salisbury and Morgan streets, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D. officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½ o'clock P. M.

Christ's (Episcopal) Church, Wilmington street, Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., officiating, services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½o'clock P. M.

St. John's (Catholic) Church, corner Morgan & Wilmington streets. Rev. J. V. McNamara, priest, officiating. High mass at 11 o'clock. Vespers at 3 o'clock P. M.

DEATH OF ANDREW STRONG.—As will be seen by the following from the Wilmington Star of yesterday, the killing of this noted Robeson county outlaw, as announced in our yesterday's noon telegrams, is confirmed. We congratulate the good people of that county that they have gotten rid of the villain at last:

"Intelligence was received in this city yesterday that Andrew Strong, one of the notorious outlaws who have infested Robeson county so long, had been killed. In fact, Captain Howland, conductor of a freight train on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford railroad, says he saw the dead body of the outlaw at Lumberton yesterday, where it had just arrived. The killing is said to have taken place at Eureka station, one of the dens of the outlaws, on Thursday morning, and a well known wagoner—a white man—is mentioned as the individual who sent the desperado to his reward. If this report be true, there is now only one of the original band left, and he is "standing on slippery ground."

SEARCH WARRANT ISSUED.—Yesterday, upon the affidavit of Mr. J. T. Harris, that he believed that one Annie McNeill, col., a former servant of his, had concealed upon her premises articles of clothing stolen from him, Justice of the Peace Wicker issued a search warrant, Officer Peatross executed the warrant, but was unable to find the property in question. Mr. Harris, having reasons to think that the damsel had some of the articles on her person, had her escorted to the Mayor's office when an examination was as delicately gone into as possible, and a number of the missing articles were discovered. A bond of $100 was required of the light fingered lady for her appearance at the next term of the Wake county Superior court.

OUR LOCAL.—Captain Woodson, our local, is a modest young man and does not like to see compliments to himself appearing in his own columns, but we take advantage of his absence and reproduce the following from the Petersburg Index of the 25th inst:

"We had the pleasure of a visit last night from Captain E. C. Woodson, of the Raleigh, (N. C.) News, who has come to the Cockade to spend his Christmas. Captain W. is one of the editors of the liveliest newspapers in the Old North State, and if it is any compliment to him, we will say he contributes in a large degree to the life of the News."

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday morning, at the head of Fayetteville street, the grey mare attached to the buggy of Col. J. J. Young took fright, at some little boys running about the street with their little sleds, and dashed off. The occupants of the buggy, Col. Young and Mr A. D. Jenkins, were soon deposited on a snow bank, and the frisky equine feminine hied on her way to the stable after breaking out of the harness entirely. The Col. sustained no injury, but had his handsome talma badly torn, while Mr. Jenkins escaped with a few scratches on the chin.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Superior Court of this county convenes in this city on the 6th prox., which is the first Monday in January. Both the Civil Issue Docket and the Criminal Docket are large. The former has some 321 cases upon it, and the latter 122. The Bastardy Docket contains 85 cases. There are 23 presentments to go before the Grand Jury.

DRESS PARADE AMONG THE SLEIGHISTS.—Yesterday all day long the streets were thronged with sleighs, and many a laughing and bright eye and rosy cheek could be seen from behind buffalo robes and thick shawls. Crowds of little boys with their sleds sported about gaily, hitching on behind the vehicles of the grown people. Abot 4 o clock, P. M., according to agreement, some twenty-five sleighs were assembled in front of the Capital Southern gate; and a merry prossesion soon went driving down Fayetteville street—attended by the music of the silvery tinkling of numerous bells. The only discordant sound which was heard was an occaisonal horse laugh by some man and the clangor of a few cow-bells which some persons were content to make-shift with. We have not time to comment upon the nondescript appearance of some of the improvised sleighs.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE YARBOROUGH HOTEL.—We were shown on yesterday a drawing of the Yarborough House as it will appear when the designed improvements are completed. It is proposed to add an extensive wing to the Southern end of the building, and to make the front of the older portion correspond to the elegant one which will be given to the new. When the work is finished the building will contain over 150 rooms, together with a spacious barber shop, bar room, billiard room, &c. The new dining room will be 38x86 and will be fitted up in a magnificent manner. The old dining room will be cut up into suites of rooms. We suppose the work will commence soon, as the bricks and other material are being hauled.

ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING IN THE NEWS.—If we were so disposed we could cite numerous instances where the patrons of this paper have been signally and speedily benefitted by making known their desires and needs through its columns. As a case in point we will mention an occurrence which took place yesterday: While sitting in our sanctum busy with the paste pot, pencil and scissors, a business man of this city rushed breathlessly in and exclaimed, "I say I just want you to take out that advertisement for a house which I put in yesterday; I have just come from breakfast, and have already been interviewed by seven men with houses to rent!"

Now, ye who have houses to let, or who wish to rent, had better take the hint and let us tell the public of it.

DEAD.—We regret to learn of the death of H. L. Cook, Esq., an esteemed and respected citizen of this county, which occurred on Friday evening at his residence four miles west of this city. Mr. Cook's decease will be lamented by a large circle of relatives and friends. He was about 48 years of age.

Cumulative Suffrage.

Editors News:

I notice the remarks of "Raleigh," in your paper of the 28th, about Cumulative Suffrage. I like the notion. The idea seems to be to cumulate, that is, to pile up ones votes on his favorite candidate.

If seven men are running for Commissioners, and six Commissioners are to be elected; and I dislike six of the candidates and admire the seventh, it seems but right that I should be allowed to give my favorite all of my six votes, and not be compelled, either to throw them away on some person who is not a candidate, or to vote for the candidates whose election I do not advocate—persons that I don't like. This looks reasonable and proper. I am for it.

WILL THE COTTON TAX BE REFUNDED?

The cotton tax question has come up for discussion again. A few days before Congress adjourned for the recess, Hon. Herschell V. Johnson, of Georgia, who represents the claimants, delivered an argument in its favor before the Committee of Ways and Means of Congress. That Committee has the bill now under consideration, and it is probable that some final disposition will be made of the matter during the present session of Congress.

The amount of this tax actually received by the Government is over sixty eight million dollars—a pretty snug little sum to come back to the depleted pockets of Southern farmers.

It is known, however, that many planters have disposed of their interest in their cotton tax receipts to speculators, at very low figures, and this has given rise to much discussion as to whether the passage of the refunding bill will be of real benefit to those who bore the burden of the tax.

The constitutionality of the law under which the tax was paid has been a disputed question among lawyers, and has been brought up in the United States Supreme Court, but that tribunal has delayed its opinion from term to term, and there is no prospect when a decision, if any at all, is to be made.

It is stated that inasmuch as Northern capitalists have become interested in having the tax refunded by buying up the claims of Southern planters, there is a better prospect than ever of getting the bill through Congress this winter.

In order to prevent the money refunded from falling into the hands of speculators, a member from Georgia, Mr. McIntyre, has introduced a new bill on the subject, for the protection of the farmers. This bill proposes that the United States shall re-pay the cotton tax by issuing thirty five year five per cent. gold bonds, to be delivered to the Governors or the authorized agents of the States, in amounts equaling the amounts received from each State respectively for the tax on cotton. The States are to return the amount so received by them to the parties who actually paid the tax, and where this is impracticable, the money shall be disposed of in such a manner as the several Legislatures may by law direct.

We must confess that we do not have much faith in the success of any measure in Congress intended for the benefit of the Southern States, and therefore do not indulge any sangnine hopes that our farmers will ever receive back the sixty-eight millions tax which they have paid into the United States Treasury.

The law which compelled us to pay this tax, may be unjust, oppressive and unconstitutional, but does Congress care for that? Where has that body ever exhibited a just, humane, constitutional policy when the rights and interests of the Southern people were involved?

We would be glad if all who paid the tax on cotton would have every dollar with interest refunded, because, leaving the constitutionality of the law out of view, the Southern States have been burdened with excessive Federal taxation, which in their present impoverished condition, has been onerous and oppressive.

TROUBLE IN ARKANSAS.

To the political troubles which have excited and disturbed the State Governments of Alabama and Louisiana, we may now add the imbroglio in Arkansas, which in many of its aspects present the same features with that of Louisiana.

In Arkansas, Brooks, the Conservative candidate for Governor, was elected by some five thousand majority over Baxter, the Radical nominee. The Conservatives elected the balance of their State ticket and a majority of both branches of the Legislature. But the Radical Returning Board of Canvassers threw out such returns as they thought proper, and by rejecting the vote of certain Conservative counties, succeeded in figuring out a majority for the Radical ticket, and have given the certificates of election to the Radical candidates.

Some of the Conservative candidates have asked for an injunction against their opponents, to prevent them from exercising the duties of the offices to which they have been declared elected, and to prevent the Radical acting Governor Hadley from changing or altering the original election returns.

The bill of injunction charges the Governor, Secretary of State, Registrars, County Clerks and Judges of election with confederating together and fraudulently depriving thousands of citizens of the right to vote, with changing the returns, and altering the returns from four counties, which deprived the complainants of the benefits of ten thousand votes.

The difficulty in Arkansas arises from the identical cause with the disturbances in Alabama, namely, the insane thirst of the Radicals after office, and an attempt to override the will of the people, in order to control the State Government and all the offices in its gift.

Baxter, who figures as the Radical Governor elect of Arkansas is a North Carolinian by birth, but if the reports concerning his political standing and character be true, he is no credit to the State of his nativity. He is represented as a Radical of the lowest type.

"THE FRAGILE GEORGIAN."

Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, is looming as a strong candidate for United States Senator from that State. His most prominent contestants are General John B. Gordon and Hon. B. H. Hill. The former was the gallant and beloved commander of the old Second Corps, A. N. V., and the latter was a Confederate Senator.

Mr. Stephens' paper, the Atlanta Sun, is filled with extracts and communications relating to the claims of the several candidates for Senatorial honors, and if we are to judge by the tone of these articles, Mr. Stephens has many friends and admirers who would be glad to see him again in the United States Senate Chamber.

At Atlanta, a few days since, he addressed an immense audience on the political situation, giving his views at length and demonstrating, from the applause he received, that he has lost none of his vigor and popularity as a public speaker. Mr. Stephens is at present quite lame—but his general health is as good as it has been for a long time.

WHITELAW REID, ESQ.

It must be highly gratifying to Mr Reid to witness the evidence of his popularity in editorial circles, as evinced by the general rejoicing in all sections at the arrangements recently made by the stockholders of the New York Tribune, by which he is to continue as the Editor-in-Chief of that paper.

Mr. Reid is quite a young man—only thirty-four years of age, but has acquired a reputation in journalism which is not ordinarily achieved by a whole life time of study and experience. His style is exceedingly popular and forceful, being terse, vigorous and manly, and few writers can be found in this country who can wear more creditably and worthily the editorial mantle of the lamented Greeley.

Mr. Reid informs the public that the plans of Mr. Greeley will be carried out as far as practicable in regard to the management of the Tribune; that it will still advocate the principles of reconciliation and peace, and condemn whatever it believes to be wrong and improper, regardless of party ties or associations.

BAD FAITH.

The Radical members of the Alabama Legislature acceded to the proposition of Attorney General Williams, that the two separate bodies claiming to be the legal Legislatures should assemble together in the State capitol, and waive all contests for the disputed seats until after the organization of the two Houses—the members whose seats were contested, not being allowed to take any part in the proceedings until an investigation should determine on the legality of their elections.

The Radicals, notwithstanding their concurrence in this proposition, still hold their sessions separately in the Court Room, and have elected the United States Senator and passed several laws in their separate session. The bad faith thus exhibited is in keeping with the conduct they have shown from the first, and serves to prove to the country what confidence can be placed in Radical promises.

A BALLOON VOYAGE ACROSS THE ATLANLIC.—The Philadelphia Star says. Prof. John Wise, the well-known aeronaut, has it in contemplation to make a balloon trip across the Atlantic next summer, preparations for the great aerial voyage being in process of arrangement now. The professor, it will be remembered, made the famous air trip from St. Louis to the eastern extremity of Lake Ontario, a distance of over twelve hundred miles, in the short space of nineteen hours, or at the rate of about sixty-three miles an hour. He feels entirely confident of his ability to make the quickest trip on record across the Atlantic. Quite a number of scientific gentlemen have made application to accompany him in this greatest of all ballooning expeditions. As showing how far America is ahead in aeronauters, so far as distance travelled is concerned, the largest trip ever made by a European balloonist was only 460 miles, while that of Prof. Wise's was three times that distance, and, what is more, the greater portion of it was accomplished in the midst of a cyclone, and with three passengers besides himself.

POSTMASTERS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LOSS OF REGISTERED LETTERS.—The Postmaster General seems considerably amused over the discussion now going on in the newspapers over a supposed decision of the Postoffice Department to the effect that postmasters are held responsible for the loss of registered letters. He says that no such decision has ever been made, and that neither postmaster nor the Postoffice Department are responsible in any way for the loss of such letters.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad has inaugurated a new system for paying their dividends which saves some trouble, and is worthy of imitation. The stockholder (instead of drawing his dividends through a bank and paying the bankers a fee for doing the business as heretofore) receives a printed form, stating the amount of dividends due him, inclosed with a blank order, which the holder signs and returns to the treasurer of the company, who sends him a check for the amount due.

There are 354,668 persons in Tennessee over 19 years of age who are unable to read and write.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SENATORSHIP.—A great struggle is going on for the seat in the United States Senate made vacant by the election of Mr. Henry Wilson to the Vice Presidency. Dawes is pecking at it and Boutwell longs for it. The former had the inside tract, but the Credit Mobilier disclosures have seriously damaged his chances for success. The people do not relish the flavor of the Oakes Ames dish, and they do not wish that their next representative in the United States Senate shall be suspected of having had his spoon in it. Mr. Dawes is understood to have vowed a vow that if he is defeated Secretary Boutwell shall not be his successful competitor. Under these circumstances Dr. Loring appears on the scene as a candidate; but unfortunately the Doctor eat his soup at a dinner in honor of Brooks for the Sumner caning a few years ago, and it now rises to plague him.

FLORIDA SENATOR.—The Washington Republican thus strongly endorses Gen. Tyler—a native of Virginia:

Florida will elect a Senator on the second Monday of January to succeed Mr. Osborn. Our candidate for that position is the Hon. John Tyler, jr., the son of ex-President Tyler, a gentleman of the highest culture and education, who unites in his person, to quote his own words, "the memories of two hundred and fifty years, from the felling of the first tree at Plymouth, at St. Mary's, in Maryland, and at Jamestown." By all means let Florida send us Mr. Tyler.

The coming marriage of the daughter of Mustapha Pascha to Khelil-Sheriff Pascha has thrown Turkish Society into a flutter of excitement. Among the bridal presents is a tiara and necklace of diamonds which cost $20,000.

The Virginia Legislature has just voted to make the 22nd of February a legal holiday. The delay in adopting this measure was not, however, the result of any feeling of disrespect toward Mr. Washington.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A promising boy the other day in St. Louis, aged some three years, deliberately set the dress of his infant sister on fire "just to see the fun." The little girl was shortly afterwards a shining angel above.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The writer of this notice will cheerfully send (free of charge) to all who request it, the Recipe for making and successfully using a very simple Vegetable Remedy, that will be found a positive and speedy cure for Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, Loss of Vitality and all forms of Nervous Affections, and the evils and disastrous consequences that follow in their train.

This remedy is entirely a product of the vegetable world. Its component parts are simple as nature herself is simple—harmless toward nature, yet powerful in opposing and eradicating disease. Consumptives; despondent and debilitated and Nervous sufferers, do not fail to give this remedy a trial. It will cost you but little. It may save you from a Life of Misery, or a Premature Grave. I know whereof I speak. Let him who doubts come forth and see. Letters of inquiry answer by return mail. Those who feel disposed will oblige by stating their symptons—by so doing beneficial suggestions may often be made. Address
REV. EDWARD BURNETT,
Tropical Nurseries,
Albany, N. Y.

N. B.—Those suffering with incipient Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c., &c., will find speedy and permanent relief in the above mentioned remedy.

It is at least worth a trial, as the cost is nominally nothing. Respectfully,

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

THE HUMAN ROOF AND ITS THATCHING.—If the man deserves well of his country who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, surely he who produces a glorious crop of hair on a comparatively barren scalp deserves the hearty thanks of the obliged party. All honor, therefore, to Professor E. T. LYON, for, unquestionably, his renowned KATHAIRON accomplishes this object. Gentlemen whose whiskers are shy o making their appearance in force, or the fibers of whose moustaches disclose those "magnificent distances" for which Washington City was once so famous, will find this HAIR PERSUADER the most wonderful encourager of fibrous development that has ever yet been invented. Both sexes are advised to use it, as, by all odds, it is the best article for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, keeping it free from scurf and dandruff, preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a richness and endowing it with flexibility—that Toilet Chemistry has ever evolved from the vegetable kingdom.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA AND QUEEN'S DELIGHT.—This valuable preparation combines all the Medicinal virtues which long experience has proven to possess the most safe and efficient Alterative and deobstruent properties for the cure of Scrofula, King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Cancerous and Indolent Tumors, Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Glands, or of the Womb, Spleen and Kidneys; in the various Diseases of the Skin, such as Tetter, Ringworms, Boils, Pimples, Sore Eyes, &c.; Nervous Affections, Dropsy, and all diseases originating from a depraved state of the Blood. Also many affections peculiar to Females, as Suppression, Irregularity, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, Ovarian and Uterine Dropsy, &c. It is purely Vegetable.

When using Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills, no restraint of diet or occupation is necessary. You may eat or drink as usual. They are purely Vegetable.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye does not Injure the Hair

THE TENACITY OF TRUTH.—When a nation as clear-headed as the Americans once become convinced, from long experience and observation, that an article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum venders in the universe can shake their belief in its efficiency. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these worthies are beginning to discover. PLANTATION BITTERS has too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold water diatribes which the advertisers of fermented slops, "without a particle o alcohol," are so fond of launching against alcoholic preparations. The public knows very well that this peerless restorant and tonic does contain spirits, but it also knows that they are of the purest and most wholesome description, viz: fine old St. Croix, the most active and beneficial diffuser of its remedial and invigorating properties throughout the system, which could possibly be adopted.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom o Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 5 Gold Street, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without MRS. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

BURNETT'S STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS are neatly put up in Unpannelled 2 oz., 5 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whatever your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobias' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other; in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 19 Park Place, New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SYAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. I. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

STATE NEWS.

THE Wilmington Journal warns the public against a man called Hastings who obtains money, &c., with forged letters.

THE celebrated "Mozis Addums" (Dr. Bagby) is to deliver in Wilmington soon a lecture on The Disease called Love.

THE tobacco factory of Messrs Walker Jones & Co., Newbern, which was recently seized by U. S. officials, has been unconditionally released.

The Masonic fraternity of Wilmington celebrated St. John's Day with a feast at Masonic Hall and an address by Hon. A. M. Waddell.

LITTLE colored boys in Wilmington amuse themselves by taking razors in their hands and slashing clothing hanging in front of stores.

A WHITE lad named Benjamin Turlington, in Wilmington, on Thursday last, lost a couple of fingers off his left hand by the premature discharge of his pistol.

THE residence of Chas. Wessel, on North Water street, in Wilmington, took fire in the second story on Christmas night. The flames were suppressed before any damage of any consequence was done.

A YOUTH named Gregory while attending the gin in Wilmington the other night received a blow on the head from an axe in the hands of a fireman. The boy was stunned for a while but was not badly hurt.

THE editor of the Biblical Recorder says: We have been shaved in almost every shop from Elizabeth City to Asheville, and the two best barbers we have found in the State are John Williamson, of Franklin, and Hanson Hughes, of Granville, both members in the House of Representatives.

A SEVERE conflagration broke out in Wilmington on Thursday night in a brick building on Market and Second Streets, which involved the loss of $30,000 worth of property. It is supposed that the fire originated in the store occupied by Messrs. Capps & Douglas as a butcher shop, or in the one occupied by Mr. Gilliam as a grocery, and is supposed to have been caused by an overheated stove.

The fire quickly communicated to the main building on the corner, occupied on the first floor by Capt. Jas B. Huggins as a grocery, and above by Drs. Freeman and Baldwin, dentists. From this building the flames rapidly communicated to the brick building on the South, occupied by Messrs. H. Finken and C. H. Mohr, groceries, on the first floor, and as residences above, and to the wooden dwelling on the east side owned and occupied by Mrs. E. H. Lord; and soon afterwards, stretching still farther South, the large four story brick building, owned by Mrs. W. H. Marks, and occupied by her was in flames. At these two points the fire was stayed, although the residence of Mr. N. N. Martin, on the east, and the store and residence of Mr. A. Lessman, on the South, were for a long time threatened.

The loss is about one half covered by insurance. The spread of the fire is attributed to an unexplained delay on the part of the Fire Department to get a stream on the first building which took fire.

A Terrible Scene—Fearful Result of a Runaway—A Well-Known New York Woman Drowned.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Monday night, a team of horses attached to a coach, took fright at the intersection of Fulton street and Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. The horses ran at full speed down Washington street, throwing the driver, William Gallagher, from his box with such force that he was hurled against the curbstone, sustaining severe bruises. The only occupant of the coach now was a Mrs. C. H. Adams, of No. 56 West Twelfth street, New York, who is well known in certain circles. Her screams could be distinctly heard above the clatter of hoofs and wheels, but the few who were abroad at that hour were powerless to render her any assistance. The horses continued their wild flight to the foot of Washington street, and plunged from the dock into East river. Mrs. Adams was drowned; an hour afterwards her body was recovered, by breaking in the side of the carriage while it was still in the water. One of the horses was also drowned, and the other did shortly after being brought out, from the effect of its chilly bath.—The body of Mrs. Adams was taken to the Second precinct station house. She was richly dressed, and adorned with the profuse show of jewelry characteristic of the taste of women in her sphere of life. The unfortunate woman had been spending the evening with a person known in political circles in Brooklyn, and, it is said, drank too freely.—The horses and coach were valued at $2,000. Is is said that the driver was intoxicated.—New York Times.

A letter from Christiana, Norway, of November 6, states, the Norwegian Government is preparing a winter expedition bound to Spitzbergen with the view of rescuing, if they be still alive, the crews of eight vessels—whalers, sealers, and others—which up to the beginning of October had returned from their cruise to the Arctic Ocean, between the coast of Greenland and Nova Zembla, to Trombsoe, in Norway, the port from which they started. The Norwegian Government has been rendered anxious by the non-appearance of these vessels, and has resolved to despatch this expedition to snach from death if possible so many victims. Among these missing vessels are two auxiliary ships of Hrsfessor Norden skjold's expedition to the North Pole, one of which is the Gladan, a transport brig of the Swedish Navy, and the other the Uncle Adam, a steam vessel freighted at Gothenburg. The vessel which has been sent to their succor is a steamer, the Albert with a crew of thirty five men, under command of Captain Gitto, of the Norwegian Navy.

Wellborn, Fla., must be a nice place for nervous invalids. On the 5th inst. a couple of Wellborn gentlemen had a little affair of honor in the public street with double-barreled guns and pistols, and mutually satisfied each other in thirteen shoots by killing one passing stranger outright, mortally wounding a second, and shooting a third and fourth in the leg and arm respectively.

Arkansas Contested Elections.

Mr. William M. Harrison, candidate on the reform State ticket for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court at the recent election on Tuesday, filed a complaint before H. C. Caldwell, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas, praying for an injunction to prevent M. L. Stevenson and E. J. Earl, the Republican candidates, whose election has been announced by the State Department, from exercising the duties of the office, and also asking for a restraining order to prevent Acting Governor Hadley and Secretary of the State Johnson from altering or changing the original returns, and asking for a mandamus to compel them to produce in Court the original returns, statements, &c., in reference to the election.

The bill charges the Governor, the Secretary of State, the registrars, county clerks and judges of election with confederating together and fraudulently depriving thousands of citizens of the right to vote, of changing and altering the returns and preventing the returns from being made from four counties, by which the complainant avers he was deprived of the benefit of 10,000 votes.

The counsel moved for a temporary injunction until the motion could be heard and argued, on the ground that the defendants would deface the records after being apprised of these proceedings, unless retained from doing so.

Judge Caldwell refused a temporary injunction, but directed that the parties be served with a notice and a copy of the complaint, and said that he would hear the matter on Monday next.

Senator Corbet was a heavy loser by the fire at Portland, Oregon, on Monday, as in addition to the block of brick stores bearing his name he was the owner of the Oregonian newspaper, the materials of which were damaged by removal. Attorney General Williams was the the owner of a house which was burned to the ground.

Governor Hoffman will not remain in Albany until the inauguration of General Dix. He will come to the city with his family on the 31st inst., and reside for a time at the Clarendon Hotel. A European tour of several years' duration is projected by the Governor for himself and family, and it will probably begin in January.

A floating hotel is to be built on the Alleghany river.

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Live has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME. this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features.

It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

GREELEY AND WRIGHT.

One at life's summit,
One at life's base,
By the same target,

One in life's evening,
One in its prime;
Mighty hearts beating
Double quick time.

Life partner dying,
Youth's love all quenched;
Autumn winds sighing,
Heart strings sore wrenched,

Break in their tension,
Cry "It is done!"
"Vanity—vanity
Under the sun."

Grief of a nation,
Weep at his tomb;
A goodly oblation,
To pour in earth's wound.

Don't Ask Favors.

Rely upon yourself and ask no favors. It is a great deal better to be put to serious inconvenience, and to suffer more than a little, than to be dependent upon others. Obtain what you desire by your own exertions, or make up your mind to go without it. There is more true dignity in comparative poverty, than in the most luxurious indolence gained through cringing and asking favors. And then, too, it is so humiliating to be refused by those who are abundantly able to aid you, with, "I'm very sorry I can't accommodate you." "I really wish it was in my power." "Dear me, if you had only applied yesterday," and all the other old, musty speeches which have been stereotyped from time immemorial, ready for use by those who gladly avail themselves of any excuse rather than put themselves to any inconvenience to do a favor for those who they say are their friends. How many such people there are in the world and who wants to dance attendance upon them forever?

We recently knew a man who had always been ready to do favors for his kindred, brought into rather a tight pecuniary fix; and though he had many wealthy relatives, who, without any trouble, might have assisted, yet there was not one of them that was willing to do the least thing for him. The better way is not to try even the nearest relatives we have on earth, by asking favors of them. If a man, however, has connections or friends who are really noble-hearted, and who, when they see him in trouble, come forward of their own accord and offer him assistance, let him accept it, and rejoice that he has such,

"That are friends indeed
Because friends in need."

Don't ask favors, then, and don't refuse them when they come in the right shape.

Rely upon your own efforts; go ahead, work hard; and if sometimes embarrassed, and a whole-souled man comes along and offers the helping hand, do not let a foolish pride nor a mistaken notion of independence prevent you from cordially and gratefully accepting the proffered aid; and be ready to prove your appreciation of his kindness by doing him a good turn the first opportunity that occurs.

A Kentucky infant has been produced without any bones in its neck. That child should be carefully kept away from the water, as it was evidently not born to be hanged.

The latest ext-ream of fashion is watered silk with jet trimmings and flowing train; coiffure high-tied. More appropriate, one would say, for diving-belles than for land divinities.
